Death of Mrs. James Quinley—Strikers Return to Work—Personals.

The death of Minerva L. Bogue, wife of James Quinley, occurred at her late home on North Main street, Monday morning at 1 o'clock, after a long illness. Mrs. Quinley was born in North Lyme in 1850, the daughter of Samuel and Eliza Bogue. In 1866 she was united in marriage with James Quinley in North Lyme. Besides her husband she leaves three daughters, Mrs. Frank Way of North Franklin, Mrs. E. L. Miner of Jewett city, Mrs. Joseph Lockwood of this city and one son, Alden Quinley, also of this city.

Strikers Return to Work.
The strikers in the shoe department of the U. S. Finishing Co. have nearly all returned to work. A score of the bolder spirits are still out in hopes of making the company come to their terms. The majority of the men became faint hearted when they realized that there would be no money coming to them if they stay out and they returned to work Monday morning.

M. O. R. Society at Quaker Hill.
The M. O. R. society of St. Andrew's church, held a social gathering for a week's outing at Quaker Hill. The girls will occupy one of the Moore cottages at the hill. The party is under the direction of Miss L'ford.

Personals.

Charles D. Prentice of Central avenue, who is employed as civil engineer by the New Haven road, is the son of Prentice Alexander of Quaker Hill.

Rev. F. John Bohanan of St. Andrew's church conducted the funeral service of Miss Edith Bromley at St.
Paul's church in Plainfield Monday afternoon.

EXPRESSMEN HELD
THEIR ANNUAL PICNIC
Danielson Employees Present at Sunday Outing at Waterford.

Forty employees of the Adams and American Express companies, from the Hartford, Danbury, Meriden and Providence offices, participated in the annual picnic held Sunday near Station 12, Waterford. Many sporting and team races were features of the outing.

A baseball game between the married men and single men was on the program. The former won by a score of 7 to 3. Levi Kenyon was the star of the married contingent, scoring four runs. Fred Jackson was the star of the single men, scoring four runs and carrying off the honors. Stock Burt defeated all contestants in the swimming race.

The single men's team won the turof-war over the married men. Bud Cook of Mystic who acted as anchor and a little water then spread over the scales at 25 pounds when he consented to be weighed at the conclusion of the contest.

The party returned late in the afternoon, a tired but happy crowd.

Curtain of Fire on Beach Car.
One woman was burned on the hand and the remainder of the passengers of an Ocean Beach trolley car were badly frightened when the controller viewed out near Blydenburg avenue shortly after 10 o'clock Saturday night. The woman, who also sustained a severe injury to her knee in her hurried attempt to leave the car refused to give her name.

Open Circuit on Franklin Street.
The city lights on Franklin Street were out for awhile Monday evening due to an open circuit near the Franklin Street Park.

To Make Hairs Vanish
From Face, Neck or Arms

Keep a little powdered delatone handy and when hairy growths appear make a paste with some of the powder
and a little water then spread over hairy surface. After 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and it will be entirely free from hair or blemish.
This simple treatment is unfailing, but care should be exercised to be sure and get genuine delatone, otherwise you may be disappointed.

Montville Strike Nearly Over.
According to officials the strike of Poles at the plant of the Thames River Specialties company at Montville is practically over. More than half of the 50 strikers, it is stated, have returned to work. The entire plant has resumed operations and is working full time.

BIG DAMAGE SUIT IS SETTLED

Sixty thousand Dollar Action Brought Against New York

Men by Benner Line Withdrawn From Superior Court—

Notice of Withdrawal Filed With Clerk Parsons Monday—Mystic Property Was Involved.

The $60,000 damage suit brought by The Benner Line of New Jersey against Fields S. Pendleton, Edwin S.
Pendleton and Winfield S. Pendleton, all of New York, was on Monday withdrawn from the superior court for New London county, notice of the withdrawal being filed with Clerk Parsons of the superior court office in this city.

The complaint in the action stated that on August 9, 1915 in New York city, the United States District Court in a suit therein pending between the plaintiff and the defendant, Fields S.
Pendleton, duly adjudged that the defendant, Fields S. Pendleton, should pay to the plaintiff $42,344.27 damages and $2,036.74 costs. The complaint went on to state that the defendant had not paid the damages.
The judgment was rendered in a proceeding brought by the plaintiff against the defendant on November 11, 1915 in the United States District Court.

On September 14, 1914 an interlocutory decree in favor of the plaintiff was rendered by the district court and the cause was referred to a commissioner to ascertain and compute the damages in the action.

At the time of the rendition of said interlocutory decree the defendant Fields S. Pendleton was the owner of seven tracts of land and buildings in Mystic, this state.

On October 5, 1914, the defendant, Fields S. Pendleton, voluntarily and without consideration and for the purpose of preventing the plaintiff from collecting the judgment to be rendered in the action transferred the property to the defendants, Edwin S. Pendleton and Winfield S. Pendleton.

Subsequent to the time of the transfer the property and buildings were insured in the amount of $37,000 against loss by fire.

On the time of the fire the property was destroyed by fire and Winfield S.
Pendleton claimed the insurance.

The complaint further stated that the money due from the insurance companies was the property of Fields S. Pendleton.

The plaintiff asked that the transfer of the property be set aside so far as would be necessary for the plaintiff to recover the property in order to satisfy its claim; that the insurance money be adjudged the property of Fields S. Pendleton. The plaintiff claimed damages of $60,000.

as if the Taftville team might break their losing streak.

TAFTVILLE
Murphy Day to be Held Saturday—Taftville to Play Hospital—Personals and Notes.

July 22, the day set aside by the Boosters' club of this place to pay tribute to Taftville's star catcher, Denny Murphy, now with the Lawrence team, is drawing near. The club will hold a meeting Tuesday night to make final arrangements for the big event. According to reports of the committee, there will be about 600 or 700 fans that will attend the Lawrence-New London game in the latter city on the 22nd. The delegation will include baseball enthusiasts from Taftville, Plainfield, Baltic and Jewett City. Denny Murphy has always been a popular hero of fans in all the towns and they will take this opportunity to show their respect for the Taftville boy. Arrangements have been made for the reservation of a section of the grandstand at Plainfield. The delegation will march on to the field headed by Tubbs' band.
Murphy Day will be the biggest events in baseball history that Taft-ville has ever known.

Taftville at Hospital.
The Taftville team is having a streak of hard luck just at present but it is hoped that brighter days are in store for the local team. A game has been scheduled to this coming Saturday with the fast hospital team and the local boys are going after the boys from the State hospital with a vengeance. (Pelouquin and Gowers have been scheduled for this coming Saturday.)

AT PLANT FIELD
Denny Murphy to Play With Lawrence at New London.

Two big days are scheduled for Plainfield, the next future. The London edition of Elks is planning for one day, the date to be set by Manager McLean and the directors of the club. A movement is on foot to take the many Elk business men in New London close their stores on that day and it is thought many others will fall in line.

Taftville day is to be observed on Saturday, when Lawrence, with Denny Murphy of Taftville, plays at Plainfield. Tubbs' band has been engaged and 400 tickets have been reserved for the visiting rooters. The Taftville outfit expects to gather recruits on the way. A movement is on foot to take the many Elk business men in New
and it is thought many others will fall
in line.

Eighteen Barbers Took Tests.
Eighteen applications were received for examination Monday morning at the board of examiners of barbers. The tests were held between 10 a. m. and p. m. The board of examiners consisted of John H. Hays of Naugatuck, Michael Cratty of Rockville and Fred W. Neuman of New Haven.

The tests consisted of a practical demonstration of shaving and hair cutting and an oral test on sanitation including the treatment of hands and the use of disinfectants, and the prevention of disease and sores. The applicants were from Norwich, Stonington, Westerly, Willimantic and New London.

At the Davis Theatre.
Vaudeville and Moving Pictures.

An all around vaudeville bill, among the best of the season is being presented at the Davis theatre for the first half of the week. The performances on Monday were all largely attended in spite of the sultry weather.
The Gully Brothers and Clarke presented a very clever juggling comedy act that made a decided hit with the house. They juggled clubs and hats so fast that it was next to impossible to move their money. The second vaudeville act was presented by Northland and Ward, who were seen in a singing and pianologue skit.
The latter was played to great applause. The picture production entitled Sorrow of Love. The picture featured Bessie Barriscale and William Desmond.
The Mystery of the Leaping Fish was the title of the Keystone comedy film which featured Douglas Fairbanks.
